Summary Report

Introduction:

Shikshan Prasarak Mandal's, Department of Geography, Gopal Krishna Gokhale College, Kolhapur organized One Day Workshop on "Geographical Model Exhibition" under Shivaji University Lead College Scheme under D.R.K. College of Commerce Cluster, Kolhapur on Saturday, 18 March 2023. A total of 14 college students were participating in the function with 11 different Geographical Models. Models meaning is the practical problem that follows theory—building is how the related information can be presented. One significant and popular way is the employment of model building or analog theory in geography. The quest for models is a recurrent theme in research and it has become very fashionable in geographic research. In general, model building is concerned with simplification, reduction, concretization, action, extension, globalization, theory formulation, theory testing, explanation, etc. The models link generalizations with theories.

Inaugural Function: 10.30 am to 11.00 am

The Inaugural Function was started at 10.30 am with Chief Guest Dr. V. M. Patil (The Principal, The New College) and Dr. S. D. Shinde (Prof. and Head, Department of Geography, Shivaji University, Kolhapur). Dr. V. M. Patil sir expressed his views on the cluster college schemes and development of Geography with the new concept was geographical models exhibition. He emphasized on research needed knowledge to the students and teachers. The program started from water to the plant. The program chairperson was Dr. R. B. Bhuyekar (The Principal, Gopal Krishna Gokhale College, Kolhapur). Program theme and introduction by Prof. S. A. Menshi (Head, Department of Geography, Gopal Krishna Gokhale

Hon. Shri Daulatrao Jaykumar Desai, Patron, Council Member, Shikshan Prasarak Mandal, Kolhapur.	Vote of Thanks: Dr. N. K. Susware

Session I: Key Note Address: 11.00 am to 12.00 pm

The keynote address was given by Dr. S. D. Shinde (Prof. and Head, Department of Geography, Shivaji University, Kolhapur). His main focus is on Geographical Models and Implementation with Geographical Models: Importance and Application. The keynote address was very use full to the teachers and students. His views regarding the Geographical subject were very efficient and applicable. Vote of thanks by Mr. Y. D. Mardane.

Models Presentation: 12.00 pm to 1.30 pm

For the function, 14 college students were participating in the one-day workshop on Geographical Model Exhibition. The models were presented at a specific time of the day. During that time all presenters were given information regarding the models which they were created. The judge was Mr. Uday Gaikwad, Dr. R.B. Bhuyekar, Dr. G. Ubale, Dr. S. G. Bhosale, Dr. S. Tekekar, Prof. S. A. Menshi, Miss. Utkarsha Ingavale, and Miss. Ashwini Murawane. The first price for Running water use for the hydro-electricity model (GKG, Kop.).

Second was the Criticism of Jal Yukh Shiyar scheme model (VCK, Kop.). Third price to PSLV rocket Launcher model (The New College, Kop). Also, the three sub-prices were distributed.

Session II: 2.30 pm to 3.30 pm

Session second's resource person was Dr. S. G. Bhosale, (Assi. Prof. VCK, Kop.) talk about Classifications and Functions of Geographical Models with Chair the session by Dr. R. H. Patil. The resource person was focused on Geographic Models which information was used by the students. Dr. Sunil Bhosale was talk about recent applications and development of Geographical Models. The term 'model' is conventionally used in a number of different ways. In its simplest form a 'model' is the representation of reality in an idealized form. The process of model building is actually a process of idealization. The traditional reaction of man to the apparent complexity of the world around him has been for him to make a simplified and intellectual picture of the real world. The mind decomposes the real world into a series of simplified systems. Vote of thanks by Mr. N. B. Sasane.

Session III: 3.30 pm to 4.30 pm

The last Session resource person was Mrs. Dr. S. Tikekar, (Assi. Prof. The New College, Kop.) talk about the Introduction and Concept of Geographical Models with Chair of the session by Dr. Khanapurkar. The resource person emphasized on Concept and the main use of models. Her focus on Unfortunately, there is no common and firm classification for models. All are suggested typologies. This is mainly because of a number of meanings and functions of models, as understood differently by different scholars. The term 'model' has been used in such a wide variety of contexts that it is difficult to define even the broad types of usage without ambiguity. Vote of thanks by Mr. S. K. Raput.

Valedictory Function: 4.30 pm to 5.00 pm

The best model prices with first to GKG college, second to VCK, College, and third to The new college also the sub prices were given to the other colleges. Certificates were distributed to the participants.

Vote of Thanks 5.00 pm
